

TAN SHAO QI

Tan Shao Qi (b. 2000, Singapore) graduated under the International Baccalaureate Career-Related Programme (IBCP) in Visual Arts at the School of the Arts, Singapore (SOTA). She is currently pursuing her BA (Hons) in Ceramic Design at Central Saint Martins (CSM), University of the Arts London.

As a practising artist, she works primarily with clay and explores different mediums and techniques such as photography and paper-cutting. Shao Qi's art practice revolves around explorations of Nature where she attempts to draw a connection between Man and the environment. In this ever-changing urban landscape, her interest lies in capturing the ephemeral found in her surroundings as she seeks to make visible the local flora that is often disregarded and overlooked.

She is a featured artist in KOHLER Bold. Art. Multiculturalism and Vivid and Veiled at Gajah Gallery. In 2018, she was awarded the David Marshall Scholarship for Young Artist.
